

Midhurst Green Volunteers

Equality and Diversity Policy

Midhurst Green Volunteers recognises that should direct or indirect discrimination occur within the group, it is both morally and legally unacceptable. MGV intends to combat direct and indirect discrimination in the organisation, the services it provides and in its relationships with other bodies.

MGV will take action to ensure that group activities and events are open and welcoming to everybody entitled to become a member.

People will be treated with dignity and respect regardless of race, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, disability and age.

At all times people's feelings will be valued and respected. Language or humour that people find offensive will not be used.

No one will be harassed, abused or intimidated on the grounds of his or her race, sex, age, nationality or sexual orientation. Incidents of harassment will be taken seriously.
